A BRIEF REPORT

The C.S.S.R. & S.R.R.M. Degree and P.G. College, Kamalapuram, celebrated the 75th anniversary of Indian independence. The celebrations started with the invitation of the Principal of the college by the NCC cadets. All the cadets performed the parade and presented the honorable salute to the Principal. Later on, the Principal hoisted the national flag. Following this, he addressed the students and faculty members. He commemorated the great and self-less sacrifices of our legendary leaders who gave their blood and toil for the sake of the future generations. He gave a wake-up call to the students to come forward to participate actively in all the co curricular activities apart from academics. He also said that youth has a key role to play in the development of the nation. He suggested the faculty members to provide their continuous encouragement and support to the students for their all round development. He resigned his speech by wishing everyone a happy independence day once again.

Succeeding this, the lecturer in Telugu, Dr. P. Krishna, addressed the gathering. He said that we all owe our rights and freedom to all the martyrs who lost their lives in the freedom struggle. Because of their invaluable sacrifices we are enjoying all the benefits of freedom today. He also said that some of the youth are misusing the fruits of the freedom. He also gave an example of an incident from the life of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel to explain the self-less quality of the great leaders. He concluded with motivating the students to develop such qualities.

Later, the lecturer in History, C. Ayyavarappa delivered his speech on this occasion. He explained how the British colonized our country and took over the authority and power. He also remembered how all the great leaders and warriors gave their lives to remove the shackles of mother India. He said that it's our primary duty to respect to all those and to value the gift of freedom given by them. He concluded by advising all the students to carve their future towards development.

As a conclusion speech, Lt. P. Pradeep Kumar Reddy addressed the students. Firstly he appreciated all the NCC Cadets for their hard work and enthusiasm they showed in attending all the classes of NCC. He also said that the NCC cadets can bag so many opportunities which include army, navy and police department. He urged all the cadets to encourage other students to become part of NCC. He concluded with calling everyone to sing national anthem. The celebrations wound up with national anthem and distribution of sweets.

BRIEF REPORT ON
AIDS DAY (RALLY AND AWARENESS PROGRAMMME)

Objectives of the program:

To provide required awareness regarding AIDS to the students

To inculcate humanity among the students

To eliminate fears and misconceptions regarding the contamination of AIDS

To remove inequalities from the minds of people

1st December of every year is observed as the world AIDS day by the call from WHO to stop the spreading of AIDS. The theme of World AIDS Day- 2021 is, “End inequalities, End AIDS”. World Health Organization along with its partner organizations is highlighting the need for a special focus on reaching people left behind, thus calling on global leaders to step forward to end inequalities that drive AIDS.

NSS units of CSSR & SRRM Degree & PG College, Kamalapuram organized a rally from the college gate to government hospital in Kamalapuram, with flashcards with important information related to AIDS. The Principal, faculty, NSS POs, volunteers and students of the college conducted a rally from college to hospital to provide general awareness to stop the spread of AIDS and end inequalities among people. AIDS is not a contagious disease and everyone should develop awareness regarding the spread of the disease. In addition to this everyone should develop humanitarian values towards the affected people. They should not be discriminated instead should be treated equally with others. This will help them and support them psychologically to develop confidence and hope to live life happily.

PICS:

Feedback and Success story:

The rally resounded a grand success as volunteers achieved enough awareness among people. The volunteers expressed their deepest gratitude to the organizing team for generating such knowledge on the spread of the disease and instilling humanitarian values in them. The active participation of the volunteers reflected their enthusiasm and happiness.
